

CONTENTS

Foreword	i
Grzegorz W. Kolodko Transformation, Integration and Globalization Economic Research (TIGER)
Part One
Globalization, Transition, and Development Prospects	1
Grzegorz W. Kolodko (TIGER)
Economic Ideas and Institutional Choice Among the Post-Soviet States	15
Keith A. Darden Department of Political Science, Yale University
Capacities to Globalize: Why Are Some Countries More Globalized than Others?	63
Tony Addison World Institute for Development Economics Research (WIDER) and United Nations University, Helsinki, Finland
Aminur Rahman Department of Economics, University College London London, United Kingdom
Part Two
Growth, Poverty and Human Development	85
Gustav Ranis International Economics and Yale Center for International and Area Studies, Yale University
Tavneet Suri Department of Economics, Yale University
Globalization, Growth, and the Poor	131
T.N. Srinivasan Department of Economics, Yale University
Jessica Seddon Wallack Stanford University Graduate School of Business
Globalization and the Welfare State: Developed, Developing and Transition Countries	157
Gur Ofer The Hebrew University of Jerusalem
Globalization fix the People: The Community is Called	197
George Vojta The E-Standards Forum
Globalization and Social Stress in Tanzania	221
Nguyuru H.I. Lipumba Civic United Front, Dar es Salaam, Tanzania
Part Three
State Policy and International Ethnic Migrants: Indian and Chinese Experiences in Asia	251
Suranjan Weeraratne Department of Political Science, McGill University and
Arun Agrawal School of Natural Resources and the Environment, University of Michigan
New European Immigration and Asylum Policies: Building "Fortress Europe"?	291
Andrzej Bolesta Transformation, Integration and Globalization Economic Research (TIGER) and Leon Kozminski Academy of Entrepreneurship and Management
Globalization and Europeanization: A Double Challenge for Emerging Europe	315
Laszlo Csaba International Political Economy, Central European University and Comparative Economics, University of Debrecen
Conclusion	347
Anna Grzymala-Busse Yale University	