

Nova Science Publishers, Inc.
New York 2006

Grzegorz W. KOŁODKO

The World Economy and Great Post-Communist Change

CONTENTS

Introduction

|                        |   |     |
|------------------------|---|-----|
| Chapter One:    | The Lessons to Be Learnt from the Great Post-Communist Change         | 1   |
| Chapter Two:    | Institutions, Policies and Growth                                     | 11  |
| Chapter Three:  | Globalization and Catching-up in Emerging Markets                     | 31  |
| Chapter Four:   | Globalization, Transition and Development Prospects                   | 63  |
| Chapter Five:   | Equity Issues in Post-Communist Transition Economies                  | 75  |
| Chapter Six:    | Transition to a Market System: Gradualism versus Radicalism    | 93  |
| Chapter Seven:  | 2025: Two Histories of Economic Growth                                | 102 |
| Chapter Eight:  | Structural Reform and Economic Growth in Poland                       | 122 |
| Chapter Nine:   | The “New Economy” and the Old Problems                                | 131 |
| Chapter Ten:    | E-economy and Prospects for Fast Growth in Post-Communist Countries   | 139 |
| Chapter Eleven: | The Great Post-Communist Change and the Uncertain Future of the World | 153 |
| Bibliography    |   | 167 |
| Index           |   | 177 |