

20 years of Transformation: Achievements, Problems and Perspectives

Editors and Co-authors: Grzegorz W. Kolodko and Jacek Tomkiewicz (Kozminski University, Warsaw, Poland)

Table of Contents:

Introduction

I. Reforms before transition

1. Determinants of Economic Transformation in East Central European Countries (Monika Błk)

II. Specific applied case studies

2. Twenty Years Transformation. Results for Post-Soviet Countries
(Ruslan Grinberg)

3. The Road of China's Economic Transformation: Past, Present and Future (Wang Xiaolu, Fan Gang)

4. The Russian and Chinese Transition in a Wider Perspective
(Vladimir Popov)

5. Polish Economic Growth in the Light of Modern Controversies about Growth Theory and Policy (Bogusław Fiedor)

III. Theoretical overview of transition economies

6. Entrepreneurship in Transition Economies: The Role of Institutions (Ruta Aidis, Saul Estrin, Tomasz Mickiewicz)

7. Towards Transformation Costs Theory (Adam Noga)

8. Transition: Unanswered Questions (Andrzej K. Koźmiński)

IV. Counterfactual alternatives

9. The Great Transformation 1989-2029: Could It Be Better, Will It Be Better? (Grzegorz W. Kolodko)

10. Counter-Factual Alternative Scenarios for Postsocialist Transition (Mario D. Nuti)

11. The Great Transformation 1989-2029: Could It Go Differently?
(Witold M. Orłowski)

V. Wither transition?

12. Twenty Years of Economic Transition. Future Prospects
(Jens Hölscher)

13. The Future of Transition (László Csaba)

14. The Coming Golden Age of New Europe? (Marcin Piłtkowski)

15. Social Cohesion. Challenge for Postsocialist Economies
(Jacek Tomkiewicz)

VI. Concluding remarks

16. Whither Postsocialist Transformation?

(Grzegorz W. Kolodko)

Index